Comrades and Members of the Department of Ohio

In lite of the recent Tornado Disaster in the Southern States, I recently spoke with Ed Vincent, Department of Kentucky Commander, concerning the devastation that his State recently experienced and how we could help. He said the best way at this time is financial. Please consider a donation to help with the disaster relief. Best way to donate is through the Department of Ohio, make the check out to the Department of Ohio with, Kentucky Disaster Relief, in the memo and send it to Department Headquarters. We will collect monetary donations, then forward to The Department of Kentucky. You May make donations from your Post Charities Account.

Thank You

James Hordinski
